

Supervisor Name/Contact	Research Area	Supervisor Preferences/Student Requirements
Dr. Amanda Hall Primary Healthcare Research Unit/Discipline of Family Medicine amanda.hall@med.mun.ca 777-2958	The research program is founded on knowledge translation strategies for public audiences. The particular focus of this project is to explore the feasibility of using an arts-based KT strategy of theatre to translate key messages regarding common myths about low back pain for a general public audience. The student will be co-supervised by Dr. Todd Hennessey	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • School of Fine Arts is preferred, particularly people with an interest or skill set in Theatre Arts. • We would prefer a student who has completed Year 3, but this is not a requirement. • No prior research necessary
Dr. Christine Aubrey-Bassler Discipline of Family Medicine christinebassler@hotmail.com 777-2911	Refugee Health research	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Preferred: Medicine, Health Sciences / Health Policy • Excellent communication skills • No prior research necessary • Any year
Dr. Kris Aubrey-Bassler Primary Health Research Unit/Discipline of Family Medicine kaubrey@mun.ca 777-8304	The research area is about developing business cases for a grant proposal for a public health intervention. Business case would include estimated cost-savings of 4 different scenarios. The student will gain skills in how to systematically search the literature for relevant research that would inform the business case and be co-supervised to use the information to build a business case.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Business would be preferable as the project is developing a business case for a research project. Economics would also be preferable. • Having skills in business planning would be important. • Completed Year 3 would be preferable. • No prior research experience necessary • Organisational and communication skills are necessary.
Dr. Laurie Twells School of Pharmacy/Faculty of Medicine ltwells@mun.ca 864-6655	Obesity management and treatment, infant nutrition and health outcomes, maternal and child health	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Undergraduate in arts or science • Students should have good writing skills, some experience with research methods, exposure to statistical analysis preferred but not mandatory. • Year 3 completion. • Other skills include: independent worker, people skills, ability to develop presentations.

NUTRA Supervisor List - 2018

Supervisor Name/Contact	Research Area	Supervisor Preferences/Student Requirements
Dr. Michael Grant Division of Biomedical Sciences mgrant@mun.ca 864- 6569	Influence of cytomegalovirus infection on healthy aging of individuals infected with HIV	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Biology or Biochemistry, Psychology and Sociology could also be considered. • Some lab experience and general computer knowledge preferred • Student in 3rd or 4th year of undergraduate program preferred. • Prior research experience is desirable, but not absolutely necessary. • Strong written and oral communication skills desirable. • Team player, sense of discretion.
Dr. Michiru Hirasawa Division of Biomedical Sciences michiru@mun.ca 864-6573	Neurobiology of obesity and addiction	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Science-related background; • No experience necessary, but a strong interest in scientific research is preferred • Any Year; • Strong work ethic • Interpersonal skills